Q: How does your job support the 557th Weather Wing's mission?

My job enhances the products developed by engineers and makes them more relevant while still accessible to all customers in the field.

Q: What do you find most rewarding about your work?

Working on the other side of the product. Utilizing my experience to develop and improve the products I have been using for so long.

Q: What has been your biggest challenge in the military, and how did you overcome that challenge?

The moving and changing of people that I work with has been a challenge, but I have overcome it by becoming a more open and welcoming person.

Q: What has been your most memorable experience in the military?

Making rank to match my older brother.

Q: What is one piece of information or advice you would pass on to new Airmen joining the 557th Weather Wing's team?

This is a community of intelligent and friendly people. Open yourself to understanding how it all works together and utilize all the resources you can to improve yourself and the wing.
